The DIMMER VIEW

Color Dumps Inflationary

East county residents are facing a sanitary-fill (dump) crisis.

It's government made.

As matters now stand, there will be a single dump that's semi-convenient to residents of Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and Casa de Oro.

There's a San Diego City dump at Chollas Heights but that is closing soon. The City plans to make the site into a public golf course. That's good. It shows that dumps can be used to provide ecological improvement.

The nearest county dump is at Jamacha and Hwy 94 and it will close next year when it is filled.

San Diego City explored the acquisition of a long, deep gully a few hundred feet north of the present Chollas dump but it never got past the environmentalists' offices. It was rejected because the sound of bulldozers would have disturbed residents nearby.

Forget that the dump, when filled, would become an ecologically pleasant park. Forget that dozers run only for a few hours and only in the daytime. It was the thought of the bulldozer chugging down the gully that upset environmentalists.

Soon, local dump patrons will have to make the tour to Santee (Mission Gorge rd.) or Otay Valley rd. The fuel consumption for the trips will not help the energy-saving program! County Engineering planned a dump in Jamul but citizens' opposition killed that thought.

The costly (in energy) trip north or south will not be the only painful part of the operation.

Those of us who are chary with a buck have noted the unconscionable increase in week-day fees. Passenger car and station wagon drivers who paid 50 cents a load are now charged $1.25. Those who drive light pickup trucks and paid $1 a trip now pay $2.50. Any way you look at it that's an inflationary 250 percent! The old prices are in effect on Saturdays and Sundays, however.

You'd think county-city bigwigs who spend a considerable amount of money for anti-litter control, would back up that investment by acquiring dumps that are more convenient and underwriting part of the operational cost with anti-litter funds. It makes more sense than the growing number of bags of trash tossed from vehicles along our highways.

The dump program in San Diego city and county is not ecologically progressive!

Maybe the ban on trash burning should be rescinded.

A county health director once told me that trash burning didn't create adverse air quality — only fine ash — but that it had to be banned as part of the whole ecological sales pitch.

"All you have to do is hold a marshmallow over your trash fire and you qualify it as a legal bonfire," he said. He also noted that trash could be burned in a fireplace legally. The problem is that not everyone has fireplaces, so that would be discriminating against the ecologically deprived members of our society.

Higher prices, greater distances and stricter regulations for trash disposal are not much different than the smog device stupidity.

Many of us spent time and money having useless devices installed at the order or some stupid agency who leached our tax money and misguided us in the performance of its unrealistic requirements.

Even today, after many of us have had three different types of non-working smog devices installed, the ones now approved use more energy and some studies indicate they create more smog.

The energy situation is another problem created by an unthinking agency. While government was letting Big Oil have its way with control of fuel, it was tightening the control grip on the defenseless public.

The White House (under President Ford) was calling for heroic efforts to reduce the use of energy while Big Oil tankers were off the east coast waiting, sometimes for weeks because bunkering facilities were overfilled after the public heeded the danger call and cut back on the use of energy.

Even today, there are several states in which service stations are using premiums, such as glassware, to attract gasoline users.

The motorist is soon due to face another gigantic governmental blunder.

This one has to do with air bags which promises to keep us safe in event of an accident. The bag inflates upon sudden and strong impact. Installation will be enforced by an agency that sees it as a fail-safe device which lets us relax on the highway because now nothing can injure us.

Nothing is said about the high cost of air bag installation. Nor the cost of frequent check-out since the bag must be instantaneous and fully operative.

No one talks about the lighter collisions which will pop the bag and cut off our vision. Once the bag pops passengers in the auto are in an unguided metal missile. What a way to go!

Perhaps the day will come when the myriad agencies spawned by a government which hopes to perpetuate itself will begin reducing rules and regulations by which we live. And lawmakers will make no more laws until the ones on the books now are either enforced or rescinded.

Government should take a lesson from the sugar producers. They laid it on the public so hard the public cut back on sugar use until the producers had more sugar than they could sell. Some producers were financially hurt by lack of sales and they called on government to support sugar prices. That's audacity! Imagine producers asking government to use our tax money to aid those who planned to get rich by creating an artificial shortage.

Shortage of dumps makes those who use dumps on weekdays understand that the price goes up when demand can't be met.

Back to the highly unsatisfactory dump situation. When the supervisors raised the price of dump use on Joe Citizen, the increase was forgiven to demolition contractors who use more dump space in a day than hundreds of average citizens do in a year.

It is a rip-off that the public shouldn't accept without a fight.

While the supervisors had nothing to do with the oil situation, the sugar shortage, the stupidity of smog devices nor the popup auto bag, it is in full control of the dump disgrace.

If you are one of the many families buying trash disposal from trash collection firms, don't feel too smug. You'll be paying considerably more for the service in the year to come.

BEAUTY AND THE MATADOR — Pretty Cindi Wright, Miss Spring Valley, seems amazed at the ornate trappings of Matador Adrian Romero's suit of light while he approves of the queen's sash, proclaiming her the most beautiful. Romero rejected one bull — "he is too small" and spared the life of another who he described as a "brave bull". He was fined 5,000 pesos for refusing to fight an animal "below my dignity." Miss Wright was the matador's guest at the Bullring by the Sea in Tijuana August 28.

Bull Saved for S.V. Beauty

By Max Goodwin

It took one bull fight visit for Cindi Wright, this year's Miss Spring Valley, to become convinced she could never become the wife of a matador. "If I was married to one, we'd change his profession," she said.

Miss Wright, who earned her sash and crown in May of this year was the guest of the management of the Bullring by the Sea in Tijuana at the August the 28th corrida. She and her escorts (four) visited Matador Adrian Romero in his suite at Tijuana's Conquistador hotel as he made ready to don his "suit of lights" prior to executing an exceptional performance on the sands of the bullring before an audience of some 10,000 bullfight aficionados.

The question of marriage was really moot since Cindi is engaged and her finance was in her escort party. Romero is married to an attractive gringo — a girl who lived in Clairemont when they met.

"It was an exciting afternoon and I enjoyed all of it —except the bullfight itself. I was rooting for the bull until Adrian Romero fought. Then I was wishing that the matador wouldn't get hurt and that the bull wouldn't be killed," Miss Wright said.

Both of her wishes were granted. Romero refused to fight his first bull because it was so small it was "beneath my dignity". That fight was canceled and Romero was fined 5,000 pesos.

Later, when he faced the second bull. He challenged the bull in a kneeling position. That's dangerous. It is near impossible to get out of the way if the bull chooses to attack the matador rather than his muletta (cape). The bull was brave and Romero refused to put the sword to him. The judges protested but the crowd rocked the stadium with cheers and many jumped the barrier. Some carried Romero from the ring on their shoulders.

Miss Wright had posed prettily with Romero at the bullring but she was an inquisitive miss during the near-hour long interview granted by Romero.

Most Beautiful

This reporter introduced her. "This is Cindi Wright, the most beautiful girl in Spring Valley. Do you know where Spring Valley is?"

"Without a doubt," he replied immediately. "I mean yes," Romero said, laughing.

Miss Wright's first interest

Banks Closed

Many local banks will be closed tomorrow in observance of the 127 birthday of California.

California became a state on September 9, 1850.

Businesses are reminded to make deposits this afternoon to keep from having the worry of packed cash drawers over the three day weekend.

Banks will resume operations on Monday.

Also all county administrative offices will be closed Monday and will resume normal schedules on Tuesday.

All county landfills will remain open during the Labor Day holiday.

The Post Offices in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will also be closed.

Free Training Ends For County Parameds

The County will lay a cost on the training of paramedic personnel beginning January 1.

Exempted from charges are county service areas and fire protection districts.

The Board, in a 4-0 decision, came back with paramedic fees after the county faced having to pick up additional costs as a result of a cut-off of federal funds that had previously paid for the training program. The emergency medical services grant expires Dec. 31, 1977.

The Supervisors decision on who will be charged training fees was based upon a section of the California Health and Safety Code. The code requires the County to charge private agencies for paramedic training costs; prohibits the County from charging County service areas and fire protection districts; and gives the County the option of charging other public agencies.

Following a policy of full cost recovery of services the Board voted to collect compensation for paramedic training beginning January 1, 1978 from the cities of Vista, Carlsbad, Escondido, Oceanside, Calexico and Salton Community Services of Imperial Valley.

Private agencies including Bay General Hospital and Schaefers Ambulance Service, previously covered under the grant, will be required by State law to pay for paramedic training costs next January.

The County will continue to pay for paramedic training for employees of the following districts: San Dieguito Ambulance District; Lakeside Fire Protection District; Santee Fire Protection District; Spring Valley Fire Protection District; and Poway Fire Department.

The cities and private agencies will be charged $824 for each student undergoing the five-month paramedic core training program and $155 for each student involved in continuing education. State law requires all paramedics to undergo recertification each year. The rates are based upon recovery of the County's share of money for the training program.

UW-CHAD Fund Kickoff To Draw Local Leaders

East County community leaders, executives from leading firms and organizations and agency representatives will kick-off the East County UNITED WAY/CHAD Combined Campaign with a 7:30 a.m. breakfast, Friday, September 16, at the John A. Davis Family YMCA, La Mesa.

Emerson Richard Morris, Mongols secretary-treasurer

Mongols' L.G. Member Slain on Freeway I-15

Two members of the Mongols Motorcycle club, one a Lemon Grove businessman, were shot and killed at 4 p.m. Monday on I-15 in Escondido as they were returning from an outing with their wives.

The Lemon Grove man, Emerson Richard Morris, 29, who operated the Lemon Grove Alarm, a security device business at 3420 Harris st., was dead at the scene.

Raymond L. Smith, 36, of El Cajon, died in Palomar hospital about 2½ hours after the shooting.

The men were on separate motorcycles and each had his wife riding behind. Morris' wife Dee (Dolores), was shot in the lower back and her legs were paralyzed, it was reported Tuesday. The hospital said her condition was stable following surgery. It was also reported late Tuesday that feeling had returned to her legs.

Smith's wife, Diane, was burned by acid when a bullet hit the motorcycle's battery, exploding it. She was treated at the hospital and released.

Police said that about a dozen shots were fired from a vehicle or from the roadside. A suspected auto was located late Tuesday but the owner was exonerated from any part in the slayings.

Police reported that the men were wearing Mongol colors when slain. Morris is secretary-treasurer of the Mongols; Smith is sgt.-at-arms. An officer said the Mongols rated about 3rd and moving up in notoriety among motorcycle gangs, with Hell's Angels still the most notorious.

Mrs. Morris, mother of 4 children between the ages of 6 and 12, is operator of the Valley Massage parlor, listed at 3420 Harris st. A spokesman at the parlor said Tuesday that it would continue in operation until Mrs. Morris recovered.

The Morrises lived in Spring Valley at 9720 Apple st. Both attended meetings of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce frequently. He recently was appointed to the chamber board of directors after serving for a while as membership chairman.

Last week he had been proposed for membership in the Lemon Grove Rotary club.

Mrs. Morris' parents are reported to have taken the couple's children while she recuperates.

Funeral services were pending at press time Wednesday.

There's An Answer

By Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale

New direction

Q. Some time now I have had something pulling at me—telling me I must start going slowly in another direction.

I have been a good mother of four very special sons and have devoted the past 20 years to my home and boys. I've had some of my poetry published and have won awards for my art work.

I love to study and read; I feel I will always be the "student" type.

I'm intensely interested in medical and philosophical things.

I've prayed for God to tell me if I should concentrate fully on my art and writing, go back to school to study nursing or just to study.

I feel I'm too scattered in my actions and want to dedicate myself to one area.

I truly feel God has something great planned for me, if I could just decide what it is. Would you advise me?

A. Perhaps instead of praying to God and in effect telling him to guide you to be an artist or a writer or a student, it might make more sense just to ask him what his will is for you.

It could be he simply wants you to go on being a wonderful person and a good mother and wife.

However, there is no reason why you cannot be the foregoing and at the same time be a student.

A mother-wife-student career is not impossible. It can be a worthwhile life style and can slowly draw you in a special direction.

You may find that "something great" which God has planned for you.

We have a booklet, "This Thing Called Guidance," which has helped others with questions such as yours, and a copy of it is on its way to you. Anyone reading this column who wishes a free copy may write for one. Address your request to Dr. and Mrs. Peale, Box 500, Pawling, N.Y. 12564.

Rejected

Q. I have been in the hospital in deep depression.

I am a widow 53 years old, have gone with the same man for over six years.

Two years ago, he asked me to mary him. I told him I had to pay off my mother's funeral first.

When the bill was paid I told him I was ready and he says I turned him down, so he started seeing me less.

One Saturday night, a night we had plans, he didn't come. I called to see if he was O.K.

He said he had been mowing the lawn and just forgot about getting together.

I still love him, and this is driving me out of my mind. Please help me in some way since I am at my patience's end.

A. If you have spent six years going with a man who now forgets he had an engagement with you and his car is seen at another lady's house, one would assume there is no real porspect in this relationship.

Maybe you only think you love him. At any rate he does not seem to return your love in the full measure required for a happy marriage.

Better start looking around for other male friends who won't forget an engagement.

Perhaps you would like to find an answer for yourself to a problem that you can share with others in THERE'S AN ANSWER! If there is something you would like to ask Dr. and Mrs. Peale to discuss in this column, write to them in care of Box 500, Pawling, NY 12561.

Bethel Chorus Due at Church In Lemon Grove

Bethel Men's Chorus, a well-known local performing group from Bethel Baptist Church, wil present a concert on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Lemon Grove Lutheran Church.

Sponsored by the ALCW (American Lutheran Church Women's) from the local church, the group is directed by Mr. V. M. MacPherson. A musician by choice, he originally organized the group 12-15 years ago.

They perform every first and third Sunday for regular services at their own local church.

They have performed locally in several churches, but also travel throughout Southern California on guest appearances; they have recently appeared at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, St. Andrew's at a Pine Valley Retreat, in Los Angeles, and Riverside.

According to MacPherson, the men feel that they "are delivering the Christian message in song." A spokesman for the ALCW said that they present lively, harmonious concerts of a sacred/recular nature.

Admission free, and the public is invited.

Sinfonia Opens Third Season Saturday

The Sinfonia of San Diego, under he direction of John Garvey, will open its third season in the Spreckels Theatre, Broadway and Second, on Saturday, September 17 at 8 p.m.

Violinist Zina Schiff — San Diego's favorite — will join the forty piece orchestra in a performance of the Beethoven Violin Concerto.

Miss Schiff, who played the famous Spreckels "test" concert in 1975 and again with the Sinfonia in 1976, was originally scheduled for September 11.

The gala opening night will also feature the premier performance of Andras Viski's "Memories," a work which was begun in Hungary before the Revolution and completed here in San Diego. Soprano Carolee Thornburgh and violist Douglas Mounger will be soloists for "Memories." Composer Viski will be a special guest for the occasion.

Program changes have been made:

Cellist Christine Walevska will join Maestro John Garvey and the orchestra on May 7 instead of September 25.

Concert appearances by Angel and Pepe Romero, guitarists, and pianist Lili Kraus have been postponed until the season 1978-1979.

The previously announced dates for the Festival Series and the new classical Guitar Series remain the same, with the addition of a matinee as well as the evening performance of Ivan Rebroff on October 9. Rebroff is a bass with a five octave range, widely known by his recordings.

'Gong Road Show' Auditions At College Grove Saturday

San Diego TV viewers who watch "The Gong Show" and say, "I could do that!" will soon get their chance.

Hollywood's official "Gong Road Show" will hold auditions Saturday starting at 8:30 a.m. at the College Grove Center Community Hall. That should provide a convenient place for Lemon Grove and Spring Valley residents to present their show-biz ability.

About 40 acts will be chosen for the "live" Road Show September 17 at the Sports Arena. Approximately 10 percent of these will be considered for the televised "Gong Show."

"Everyone attending the audition will have a minute to show their stuff," said Richard Clark, Gong Road Show M.C. and one of the audition judges. "Talent is not necessarily a prerequisite but uniqueness and zaniess are."

Two types of acts get the highest marks. Something that is very good and something that is incredibly bad— but funny. Besides Clark, the panel of judges will include local celebrities.

Those who audition will receive a free ticket to the "live" Road Show at the Sports Arena, where winners receive not only the Gong Trophy but $112.62 in cash. Acts should bring their own props and costumes for the audition. Only those participating will be admitted because of space limitations.

The Gong Road Show is the traveling version of the hit TV series that features wacky and unusual talents and routines. It's been called "a corny Ted Mack Amateur Hour" by Chuck Barris, producer.

"Unlike an amateur talent show, if The Gong Show judges do not like the routine, they give it the gong within seconds," said Barris. "If it goes 45 seconds without being gonged, the judges will award points on a one-to-ten scale. The act with the highest point total wins the prizes."

Tickets for the Sports Arena show are on sale now at all arena ticket agents.

Moto Olympiad Set for Orange

30 of the world's top motorcycle riders will gather to compete in the first Monroe-SW International Motorcycle Olympiad September 17 and 18 at Orange County International Raceway at Saddleback Park.

Riding one motorcycle throughout, racers will battle for the coveted No. 1 position in six grueling events — The Kawasaki Drag Race, the Yamaha Road Race, the Penton Cross Country/Trials, the Yamaha Motocross, the Yamaha TT and the Goodyear Short Track.

A new concept in motorcycle racing, the Olympiad will not only test riding ability, strength and endurance, but each rider must do his own mechanical work in an allotted time period. No outside help is allowed. Failure to complete changes and repairs in the designated time will result in penalties of 1 point a minute.

Motorcycles will be inspected and sealed but a 10 minute adjustment period will be allowed after each event. At the close of Saturday's races, each rider will have 60 minutes to make all necessary changes for Sunday's events.

LOCAL RACER — Lemon Grove's Dave Pate takes the lead at the Cajon Speedway oval — but he didn't win the racing. Racing continues at the 3/8 mile oval every Saturday night.

Women Drivers in Destruction Derby

Women are reputed to be admirably suited to destruction driving. They will be able to demonstrate that questionable skill Saturday when 16 women respond to the starter's command "Gentlemen, start your engines."

The oval's first ever all-women destruction derby in an added attraction to a well-filled card on Cajon Speedway's 3/8-mile paved oval.

Super stocks begin the 8-event show at 8 p.m. Qualifying tests are at 6:30. A trophy Dash, 4 8-lap heat races, a consolation race, a 20-lap semi-main lead to the 40-lap finale.

Sonny Tomlinson won the main event Saturday. It was his second victory this year making it 2 in a row.

Expected to return this week in ECSCRA champion Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley. McIntyre, with the trophy nailed down, sat out last week's show with a case of flu. He could afford to be ill, he had clinched the championship the preceding week.

Few of the 22 starters this week will concede Tomlinson or McIntyre anything. Any one is capable of winning a main event.

Ramona Handicap Featured

Final Full Week For D.M. Racing

The last complete week of Thoroughbred racing of the 1977 Del Mar season will be climaxed Sunday by the championship-deciding event of the summer for older fillies and mares, the $50,000-added Ramona Handicap at a mile and one-eighth over the grass.

Closing-day of the 43-day meeting is Wednesday, when the 30th running of the $125,000 Del Mar Futurity will be presented at one mile on the main track. The outstanding two-year-olds in the West will go postward in the Futurity, first part of the Western Juvenile Triple Crown.

The $200,000 added Torrey Pines Stakes for three-year-old fillies at 1 1/16 mile Friday and the $25,000-added El Cajon Stakes for three-year-olds at a 1 1/16 mile Saturday.

The Torrey Pines Stakes is expected to bring out Drama Critic and Teisen Lap, second and fourth behind Taisez Vous in the recent Del Mar Oaks. Drama Critic was beaten 2½ lengths by Taisez Vous in the Oaks and looms the favorite in the Torrey Pines.

Outdoors & Travel

By E. L. "Buck" Rogers

Today, I'd like to chat about fishing worms.

Now before some of you saltwater sportsmen or big-bass types get the idea this is going to be a standard dissertation on nightcrawlers, I think I oughta straighten you out. There's more to this worm business than meets the eye.

A few years ago I went to Colombia with a batch of big-game tackle to catch a bagre. In those days neither I or the rest of the angling world knew much about this species of fish, but I had heard that they grew as long as a dugout canoe and had a mouth the size of a wash tub. Furthermore, they occasionally snatched up a wash woman or kid splashing around at the river's edge. That's about all I knew about the subject.

Bait for Bagre

I didn't even know what kind of bait to use for bagre. And of course, I wasn't about to walk up to some nice native lady and ask if I could borrow her chubby three-year-old to catch a helluva big fish with.

So I looked up the local Braniff airline guy, who is supposed to know what goes on in this part of the world, and asked the obvious question.

"What would you recommend for bagre?"

"How about a worm," he answered.

"You gotta be kidding," I told him. "To catch the kind of fish I'm looking for would take a bushel full of the biggest nightcrawlers alive."

This dapper Latin American airline feller shook his head sadly. "I can see you don't know much about South American worms. I suggest that we go out and dig a few."

Quest for Worms

The next day we headed for the hills, where we ran into an old man with a burro. He also had a couple of cousins with strong backs. So after we rounded up some spading forks we hiked further up the grassy slope to what was supposed to be a worm habitat. There our guide pointed at a hole in the ground which was a full eight inches in diameter.

"You've got to be kidding," I said.

But he wasn't. The burro man's two cousins started digging like a pair of prairie dogs, and pretty soon the end of what looked like a fire hose was protruding from the ground.

"Grab hold," the Braniff feller said, and made a lunge for what was supposed to be the worms tail. Overcoming my shock, I gave him a hand and with two of us pulling and the other two digging we soon had a six-foot nightcrawler squirming around on that Andes slope. After lunch we dug three more of the critters, which was all the burro could carry.

Hard to Swallow

I was so tuckered out from digging worms at an elevation of 10,000 feet that I wasn't up to go bagre fishing for a few days. And in the meantime my trophy sized worms up and died on me. So I never caught a 500-pound bagre on that trip.

The story is true enough. There are more of these big worms where these came from, and I can vouch for the fact that digging these critters is almost as sporting as catching a fish large enough to swallow one.

Aztecs Open 'Dream Season' Fri.

San Diego State's 1977 football season gets underway Saturday in the S.D. Stadium at 7:30 p.m. when the Aztecs host Fullerton State.

San Diego State is coming off a 10-1 season in 1976. Fullerton posted a 3-7-1 mark last year. It could be State's dream season.

The Titans, however, figure to be vastly improved over last season. Starting quarterback Steve Martindale returns after hitting 77 of 171 passes for 1075 yards and four touchdowns last season.

Running back Artis Dixon returns after gaining 570 yards on 125 carries last season. Tight end Bruce Abraham returns after starting all of last season and top receiver Marcus Williams returns.

Points After

Fullerton also has kicker Juan Carrillo back. Last season Carrillo hit on 10 of 14 field goal attempts and 12 of 13 PAT's.

San Diego State appears to have one of its best teams ever, but Aztec coach Claude Gilbert isn't looking past Fullerton.

"I know Fullerton State is going to come into this game sky high," Gilbert said. "We'd be foolish to think otherwise. Fullerton has a good team and we'll have to be ready to play to beat them. Since we're moving into the Western Athletic Conference next season, this will be the last chance Fullerton has to knock us off and I fully expect them to come after us with everything they have."

Super Explosive Defense

The Aztecs enter the game with potentially a super explosive offense. Heisman Trophy and All-American candidate David (Deacon) Turner is back for his senior year after gaining 982 yards on 193 carries last year. He missed three games last season and played only briefly in two others because of injuries.

Fullback Binky Benton returns after gaining 600 yards last year and top receiver Ronnie Smith is also back. Smith will be complemented this season by Dennis Pearson, who started two seasons ago at Washington State. Senior Joe Davis has won the quarterback battle after fighting off the challenge of freshman Mark Halda.

Defensively, the Aztecs are anchored by two All-American caliber linebackers in Whip Walton and Mike Douglass. Walton led the team with 82 tackles last year while Douglass had 21 quarterback sacks.

In the line, starters Ed Imo and Donny Holmes are back and will be joined by giant Kent Perkov (6-6, 269). The secondary is green, but features returnee Terry Jackson at corner.

"We're ready to kick this thing off," Gilbert said. "We've been beating on each other for a long time and now we want to see if we can beat someone else."

TAKE FIVE

by John E. Wirges

It might not be a bad idea to eat a big lunch today (Thursday) if you plan on enjoying the annual Charger Backers Kick-Off Dinner laid on for tonight at Vacation Village.

Not that the chow at Vacation Village is untasteworthy. Tout au contraire, by morsel or mouthful, the grub at the Mission Boy resort is savory, tasty and luscious to the last lick.

But the excitement of the occasion figures to leave plates picked over, fingered and nibbled upon. Only the confirmed "I-never-met-a-meal-I-didn't-like" crowd will be able to pack it away in style without regard to the tenor of the evening.

The menu brings a main course of hope, with a liberal quaff of promise and a confection of dreams fulfilled.

The entree of the evening is the San Diego Chargers of 1977. Rich food, that. Full of the protein of accomplishment and the nutrition of expectation.

Head Coach Tommy Prothro, a qualified expert in substance for both the body and soul of football fans, has mixed a mighty batter for the upcoming gridiron serving. And an early proof of the cooking can be found in the early tasting.

Tommy's Troops have but one hurdle yet to clear in the exhibition campaign, a tiff with the vastly improving Seattle Seahawks at San Diego Stadium on Sunday. Going into that contest Prothro's Pachyderms stand with 3-wins and 2-losses, and therein ties a tale of skill and deception worthy of a movie general rewinning World War II.

Prothro played his entire pack in the pre-season opener against Dallas, looking for parts that might fit his concept of the team to be constructed. They lost that one 34-14, as was to be expected.

Tommy's thundering herd stiffed San Francisco and the New York (Football) Giants pretty good in the next two sets then traveled to Oakland for the first of three (possibly four) clashes with the hated enemy and arch-rival Raiders. Tommy played the game like the bridge master he is. He false-carded Al Davis' Diablos by giving an extended audition to his supporting cast and selected supernumeraries.

Davis, the hated Raiders managing general partner, was in a corner. His private crew had just lost a pair and he had to go all out to win for his self respect and season ticket sales. The Raiders, of course, won with ease and will tend to underestimate the Chargers on September 18 when Prothro sends his troops against the Davis Diablos for real in the National Football League opener.

Prothro got a good line of what the Raiders are all about in their earlier clash, but for all the good they'll do them, Davis and his head coach John Madden might as well introduce their game notes to a match.

Prothro put most of his front line into the pits against the Los Angeles Rams a week ago and came away with a highly satisfying 26-25 success. The Rams are a bona fide SuperBowl contender and they were playing before the home folks. And, believe it, baby, they were trying!

What, with the draft, the signings and the trades Tommy's handsome general manager Johnny Sanders, and his adroit owner Gene Klein have managed, Prothro's Pachyderms are packed with beef, proficiency and versatility.

It's been a long time since the Chargers were considered quality enough to contend for a division title, but this year's edition is made of stern enough stuff to carry it off.

Tommy's Troops open against the Oaklands and host them on November 20. Then could meet them again on January 1st. for the AFC title.

And then on to SuperBowl XII in the Superdome at New Orleans.

And you get to meet these fledgling World's Champions tonight at dinner. As I said at the beginning, it's exciting enough to eat a big lunch.

Padres Stadium '77 Adieu

Final Homestand To Open Wednesday

A highly concentrated period of activity between the Padres, the Houston Astros and Atlanta Braves highlights the Padres road games as the 1977 National League schedule winds down.

The Padres will close out a two-game visit to Houston tonight and then journey on to Atlanta for a weekend series with the Braves in the Georgia capital. The two clubs will clash Friday through Sunday.

San Diego will complete the entire swing with their last two meetings of the season with the Dodgers in L.A. Monday and Tuesday. The top game, for the Padres at least, will be the finale on Tuesday as the game will be televised live back to San Diego beginning at 7:30 p.m. with Jerry Coleman, Bob Chandler and Charlie Jones calling the action.

Following the stopover in Los Angeles, the Padres will return home to open up their final homestand of the season with 10 games in 12 days on the docket. The homestand will kickoff with the Atlanta Braves in town for Wednesday and Thursday, September 14-15 contests with both getting underway at 7 p.m.

Rounding out the entire stand will be the Houston Astros September 16-17. Cincinnati Reds September 20-21-22 and lastly the San Francisco Giants September 23-24-25.

The main concern for the Padres going down the homestretch will be the battle to see which club winds up with the third place finish in the N.L.'s Western Division. Houston, San Francisco and San Diego all have shots at a first division finish. The Padres, of course, would like nothing better than to achieve a third place finish, best ever in the club's nine-year history.

THE MOST — Pretty Sharon Barrett, 15, of 10059 Crest ct., Spring Valley, won the Tribune's 4-day tournament on Friday. She beat her girl opponents by 25 strokes. She also beat the boys' score by 3. She proudly possesses her newest trophy and a perpetual trophy with her name is on display at Monte Vista High school —school she attends.

Hair Meets Mask Plus $3,000 at Coliseum Tuesday

Those are among the rewards and setbacks involved in professional wrestling.

To add to the challenge, Guererro is also laying $3,000 on the line that he'll floor Gordman.

Such is the main wrestling event Tuesday at the S.D. Coliseum.

Not to be outdone, a companion team scrap matches Victor Rivera and the internationally famous Choi Sun against Big Bad John and Rebel Bill Ash. The challenge in this match is that there is no disqualification, no time limit, and the loser of the fall must leave town.

In single fall matches Killer Brooks faces Tome Jones and Texas Red grapples Mondo Guererro.

All of these arrangements get underway at 7:30. The Coliseum is at 15th and E. sts. in downtown San Digeo.

'Beat Snelling' Is SB Chailenge

Bonita's Ken Snelling, who dominated things much of the year at South Bay Park Speedway 117's dirt quarter-mile track, will be the man to outrace when super stocks join the street stocks in another program Friday night.

Action starts with the time trials for the supers at 7. The first event begins at 8:30 with more than 42 cars expected to be in the pits.

Snelling last week won his sixth straight, pulling ahead of standings leader John Cartwright of Spring Valley on the 25th circuit and moving ahead with ease to claim the 40-lapper.

Many around the pits wonder what sort of record Snelling might have had had he not been able to compete in every event. He has won every race — 10 of them — he has entered this season.

He dropped out of action, however, for a few weeks when his father died from injuries sustained in a race track accident.

Cartwright and fellow Spring Valley driver, Jim Pavlick, continue to lead the South Bay standings with 1,685 and 1,580 points.

Padre-Dodger Game on TV

The Padre-Dodger Tuesday's game will be carried live from Dodger Stadium at 7:30 p.m. by TV 6.

Jerry Coleman handles play-by-play for televised Padre road games, assisted by Bob Chandler and Charlie Jones on color.

Griff's Friday Game to Honor Joe Roth, All American Gridder

The Grossmont Griffins open their season Friday against Antelope Valley of Lancaster in San Diego Stadium at 7 p.m.

The Griffins will be facing one of the toughest junior college schedules in the state of California. In addition to Antelope Valley, Grossmont's non-conference slate calls for contests with Arizona Mesa College (Sept. 17 in Aztec Bowl), Southwestern (in Chula Vista, Sept. 24) and Pasadena City College (Oct. 1 in Pasadena).

The Griffs open the South Coast Conference season October 8 by hosting the tough Orange Coast College in Aztec Bowl.

Grossmont split its 10 games in 1976. The Griffs defeated Antelope Valley (23-15), Arizona Mesa (21-9), Southwestern (21-10), Cerritos (23-6) and San Diego Mesa (32-21. They lost to Pasadena 18-17), Mt. San Antonio (25-24), Fullerton (14-7), Santa Ana (17-9) and to Orange Coast (26-6).

This year's opening game with Antelope Valley should be something extra special. Not only is the game — the Joe Roth Memorial Game—being played to honor one of the greatest athletes ever to perform in San Diego County — it will also mark the first appearance ever by junior college football teams in San Diego Stadium.

JOE ROTH

Joe Roth lettered in football, basketball and baseball at Granite Hills High school and was among the top academic students of his graduating class.

He was 1972 Student Body President.

At Grossmont College he continued his baseball and football career. He became JC All American in football in 1974 while leading his team to an undefeated state championship.

Roth was named Grossmont's Most Outstanding Athlete and made the academic honor roll in his final year at Grossmont.

He transferred to UC Berkeley where he became All American and in all probability wouuld have been the nation's number one professional draft pick.

He died February 19, 1977.

Roth, who died of cancer early last spring, was graduated from Granite Hills High, Grossmont College and the U.C.-Berkeley.

Roth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Roth of Jerome, Idaho, will attend the opening game. They will be presented the game ball at halftime by NFL Hall of Famer Y.A. Tittle, who set numerous passing records for the San Francisco 49ers and the New York Giants.

Marv Brown, the defensive captain during the 1974 Grossmont College football season when the Griffins, led by Roth, won the state championship, will present the Roths with a plaque containing all the names of the players who performed on the 1974 Grossmont team.

A collection plate will be passed through the stands at halftime to allow those wishing to contribute to the Joe Roth Melanoma Cancer Fund a chance to do so. Proceeds will be sent to the Cancer Research Fund at the UC-San Francisco Cancer Research Institute in Roth's name.

Chargers Try for 4 At Stadium Sunday

It's the final pre-season game and it'll be the first this year to be played in the bright sunlight.

The Seattle Seahawks come to the Stadium Sunday for a 1 o'clock date with surprising San Diego Chargers.

It will be the second meeting of the Seahawks and Chargers. The Seahawks, entertaining the Chargers in the Seattle Kingdome, scored their first-ever victory. It was in a 1976 pre-season game. Jim Zorn's 3-yard pass with 13 seconds remaining made the score 17-16. The teams have not met since.

The Chargers victory over the Rams last week brought their preseason record to 3-2. If the Prothromen beat Seattle Sunday, the 4-2 record would be the best since 1971 when they finished 4-1-1. Seattle is 3-2.

The Chargers are emerging from a 10 day hiatus of play. The Chargers ushered in the Labor Day weekend Thursday with a dramatic 26-25 victory over the L.A. Rams.

Another Quarterback

Quarterback Bill Munson, signed by the Chargers September 4, was a backup quarterback in 1976 for Seattle, which waived Munson August 24. Seahawks formerly with the Chargers include defensive tackle Ron East, who played here from 1971-73, and tight end Waddell, a Chargers fifth-round draft choice in 1975. Waddell missed his rookie season with an injury and was claimed in the allocation draft.

Toni Fritsch's 22-yard field goal as time elapsed brought an end to an exhausting contest in which the lead changed hands six times.

The victory insured a successful homecoming for Chargers coach Tommy Prothro, several members of his coaching staff, the front office and team. All of them were members of the Rams' organization at one time.

It was Prothro's first game since 1972 in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, perhaps the most famous battleground in football. Prothro has been associated with college and pro teams that have played games in the Coliseum since he first assistant to Bruins head coach joined the UCLA staff as top Henry (Red) Sanders in 1949.

Junior Chargers

Members of the Junior Chargers Club will be admitted free to the Seattle game if they are accompanied by an adult who purchases an $8.50 ticket. Junior Chargers may also look forward to their free day at SeaWorld October 22 and a clinic hosted by Charger players and coaches in San Diego Stadium November 22.

KICKOFF DINNER TONIGHT

....The 17th Annual Charger Backers Kickoff Banquet is at Vacation Village tonight at 6. Reservations are still available at 280-2111.

Birth of Tea Bags

Tea bags caught the public fancy back in 1904 when a merchant sewed samples of tea in small silk bags to use as samples and orders started pouring in from customers. They were being used for making tea and today more than one-half of all tea consumed in the U. S. is made with bags of a special filter paper.

32 Rounds Of Boxing Slated

Boxing resumes Friday, September 16, at the S.D. Coliseum after a 3-week dark period occasioned by the holiday.

The upcoming card looks good. Jose "Speedy" Gonzales is back. He beat state featherweight champion Manuel Lujan in his first fight here this year. Gonzales is from Puerto Rico by the way of Miami. He's a clever but erratic fighter. He's hard to locate between fights but when he gets in the ring he's exciting.

Is opponent is considerably more steady. He's Ignacio Negro Campos of Tijuana who intends to use Gonzales as a stepping stone in the U.S. It'll be 10 rounds — or less.

Another featherweight, Irish "Spud" Murphy, who won an easy KO victory in Las Vegas earlier this month, is matched against Sonny Mesa of National City in a 6 rounder.

Light-heavies Lennie Vanassi of Tonga and Charles Mears of L.A. will have a 6-round mix. Vanassi is a powerful body puncher.

In a 6-round lightweight match, Teddy Pineda of Mexicali faces David Portillo of Hawthorne. Both are popular at the Coliseum.

The wrap-up will be Bobby Bryant of Long Beach and S. T. Gordon of L.A. in a heavyweight meeting of 4 rounds or less. S.T., who claims his first name is really "S.T.", was disqualified when he was signed for a fight in August 28. One of the state inspectors in school teacher fashion, claimed his physical check list wasn't complete when one of them wouldn't accept the optometrist's initial on the chart section for visual acuity. This time he's bring a signed note.

The first gong sounds at 8:15 p.m. and the last gong may be rather late what with 32 rounds scheduled.

Movie at Museum

The Natural History Museum will show a 30 minute, color film, called "Dam Builders" September 10 and 11 in the museum in Balboa Park.

The film is the latest in the museum's program of weekend documentary films presented both Saturday and Sunday at 1:30 and 3 p.m. in the museum's auditorium.

Admission is free to children under 16. Adult admission is included in the museum's $1 entrance fee.

Fingers Leads In N.L. Relief Competition

Rollie Fingers of San Diego and Sparky Llye of the New York Yankees have taken over the leadership positions through August in their respective leagues in the Rolaids Relief Man awards competition.

Fingers, with eight saves and one win to his credit during August, passed Bruce Sutter of Chicago as the National League pacesetter. His season to date (September) total of 31 saves and 8-5 won-loss record gives him 73 points on the basis of two points for each save and each win, less one point for each loss. Sutter, who had been No. 1 in the N.L. since July 1, dropped to second place with 61 points. Because of back problems which forced him out of action most of August, he was able to compile only two saves during the month.

In the American League, Lyle edged by Boston's Bill Campbell to take over the top spot with one month of play remaining. With five saves and four wins last month, the Yankees southpaw upped his point total to 62.

His save total of 21 plus a 12-4 won-loss record places him three points ahead of Campbell who totalled five saves and two wins in August. Campbell, the A.L. winner last year, had held down the No. 1 position since May.

11 UCLA Games On Local Radio

UCLA opens its 1977 football season against Houston in the Astrodome on September 12, and KSDO and a special 14-station radio network will again be presenting all of the Bruin grid action.

KMPC will be the originating station for the California-Nevada regional network, with KMPC Director of Sports and "Voice of the Bruins" Fred Hessler calling the play-by-play and KMPC sportscaster Al Wisk supplying the color commentary.

UCLA will face Kansas, Minnesota and Iowa in addition to Houston and the seven Pac 8 Conference opponents during the season which winds up November 25 against USC.

ICS Starts Midweek; Series Begins October 11

Baseball Post-Season Schedules Changed

Baseball's post-season calls for a mid-week start for the first time since 1968.

The best-of-five League Championship Series will open on Tuesday, October 4, in the National League and Wednesday, October 5, in the American League while the best-of-seven World Series will start on Tuesday, October 11, Commissioner Bowie Kuhn announced recently during the annual LCS-World Series planning meeting in New York.

It was also announced that World Series ticket prices will be the same for the 9th year in a row with box seats $15 each and reserved seats $10. LCS tickets show a slight increase. Box seats have gone up from $8 to $9 and reserved seats from $6 to $7.

A record 14 clubs were represented at the yearly meeting. They included Baltimore, Boston, California, Chicago Cubs, Chicago White Sox, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Minnesota, New York Yankees, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Texas. The attendance was particularly high this year due to the large number of clubs involved in tight divisional pennant races.

Week Nights

All World Series games during the week will be scheduled at night as they have been since 1972 while the Saturday and Sunday games will be afternoon contests. Last year, on an experimental basis, World Series Game 2 was played on Sunday night.

Every year since the inception of divisional play in 1969, the LCS has opened on the Saturday following the last day of the regular season with the World Series starting a week later. The season ended on Thursday from 1969-71. In 1972 and 1974 it concluded in Wednesday and in 1973, 1975 and 1976 it ended on Sunday.

Baseball officials feel the change is needed to provide an earlier ending to the World Series which will increase the probability of suitable weather and to reduce the five-day gap between the end of the season and the beginning of the LCS.

The League Championship format will again feature a day-night doubleheader arrangement on those days when both leagues play. This procedure was initiated last year to allow fans to watch or listen to all games in their entirety. Before 1976 there was some overlapping in the play.

The National League will get a one day jump this season, opening its LCS with a night game on October 4 in the home park of its western division champion. The American League Championship Series will open the next afternoon, with its Eastern Division winner as host. Starting times will be announced by the individual clubs.

World Series

The World Series will open the night of October 11 in the American League city with game 2 at the same location on Wednesday night, October 12. After a day off for travel, Games 3 and 4 will be played on Friday night, October 14, and Saturday afternoon, October 15, in the National League city. If Game 5 is necessary it will be played in the afternoon, Sunday, October 16, at the same site.

Games 6 and 7, if necessary, will return to the American League city and will be played at night, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 18 and 19. Like the LCS, clubs will announce World Series starting times.

If the Chicago Cubs are the National League World Series representative the Friday game will be played during the day.

ABC-TV will televise all World Series games nationally while NBC-TV will present full national coverage of all LCS action. The CBS Radio Network will air all games nationally of both the LCS and World Series.

Collegiate Grid Games on TV 6

In-depth reports on nationally-ranked California collegiate teams will be featured on TV 6's new "This Week in California Collegiate Sports" debuting Saturday 3:30-4 p.m.

According to station vice president-general manager Julian M. Kaufman, host Lee Grosscup will join USC head football coach John Robinson in the premiere segment to reflect on the Trojan's 1976 Rose Bowl victory and also to forecast the outcome of the 1977 PAC 8 season.

Future programs will highlight UCLA basketball, Pepperdine College tennis, University of San Francisco soccer, USC swimming and UC-Berkeley gymnastics.

Kaufman said each program will be filmed "on location" and will explore each school's total athletic endeavor, including coaching, recruiting, facilities and acedemic life.

was if the matador was nervous on the day of a corrida.

"No," he said, "I am usually nervous whenever I think of a bull."

"What is the most dangerous part of the ceremony?" she wanted to know.

"The whole thing is dangerous from the time you face the bull. The first pass is very difficult and critical. You don't know how he is going to hook or what he is going to do. You haven't had a chance to judge your attacker," he told her.

"Is your wife (Shannon) agreeable to your profession?" she asked.

"Before we were married we talked about the hazards. I taught her much about fighting. She finally agreed that it was a worthy profession and she likes the fights now."

The Hazards

"Have you ever been gored?" asked Miss Wright.

"Yes, several times. Shannon has been with me when I was hurt and I was very worried about it when she was there. It is hard on me but it is very hard on her. I worry how she's going to react when I am hurt."

"What got you interested in bullfighting?" Miss Spring Valley wanted to know.

"In Mexico bullfighting is very traditional. I wasn't interested because I lived in the States as a kid. Then one day I went to Mexico City and saw a bullfight and I realized what my vocation was and that interested me more than anything else in my life. Right then I made up my mind, and I became one," recalled Romero.

"Does today's fight look good?" she wanted to know.

"I'm confident today. These are bulls I enjoy fighting. They are from Las Huertas. They are very brave. I feel physically and mentally prepared. It should be a good fight."

The Golden Sword

He was reminded that he had won the vaunted Golden Sword (for the best performance of the season) when he was a rookie. It was in 1970 when he was 20.

He was asked at the time (7 years ago) about his bravado. A newsman had said, "You get blood (picadors spear wounds) on your suit of lights on the first pass. It is often from your knees to your chest. Why do you stand so close to the bull?"

Romero had replied, "Senior, I do not stand close to the bull, the bull stands close to me."

He said Sunday "It might have sounded kind of funny then, but it is because it was my first year as a full matador and when you don't have domination of the bull, he does get close to you. But when you are more mature and have domination you can pass him wherever you want. People respond more when the bull passes against the matador."

There was a stirring among the 20 or so people in the suite. That signaled the time for the corrida was drawing near. The Wright party made ready to go as did some of the other visitors. Part of his entourage began to get his suit ready. One man was ironing Romero's cape on the carpeted floor.

Soon there was only 8; Romero, his wife, his two managers and his crew which consists of two picadores and two banderilleros.

Later, it was proven, they had dressed him for a magnificent performance.

Comptroller Not Worried

July Receipts Miss Income By Some $476.5 Million

SACRAMENTO — State Controller Kenneth Cory does not seem shaken there is a $476.5 million cash deficit in the state's coffers for the first month of fy 1978.

Cory said last week "there is no cause for alarm".

"Revenue receipts ordinarily are not heavy during the early months of each fiscal year while expenditure continue at a relatively even pace," Cory explained. "Also some revenue collections did not reach the state treasurer in time to be included in the July month-end accounting report and will show up in the report for August."

The July receipts totaled $354,750,920 while the general fund government cost expenditures for the same period were $841,255,520.

"Fortunately," the Comptroller continued, "the General Fund started the year with a cash balance of almost $1.8 billion which made it possible to handle such a sharp cash flow fluctuation without difficulty."

From the figures, sales tax collections are up $36.3 million, personal income taxes are up $7.7 million, corporation taxes up $13.4 million, inheritance taxes up $8.1 million, and interest income revenue up $10 million from 1976 figures.

Yet, Californians spent less and the state collected less on cigarettes (revenues generated from taxes are down $3.1 million), insurance company tax (down half a million dollars), and horse racing (down $426,696).

Largest expenses on the list were for schools which logged a $176.5 million price tag, up $8½ million from fiscal year 1977; health care benefits with a $99.8 million price tag, up $17.9 million; state colleges with a $56.8 million price, up $4.2 million; and the new senior citizens' property tax relief which cost the state $45,031,601. Renters property tax relief cost a little more than $1 million.

Placements Up at Employment Dept.

Latest figures on unemployment in San Diego County show some 37,197 people claiming jobless benefits under state and federal assistance programs.

Although summer jobs were included, the figures prompted some optimism from administrators at the California Employment Development Department on Front street.

During July, the local office placed almost 8,000 unemployed persons in jobs, three times as many as were placed by the department in June and twice as many as were placed in July 1976.

About 2,800 were placed in June and 1,629 in July 1976 compared to the 7,820 placed last month.

The figures according to EDD public information officer Jack Yelton, were the first time this summer the thousands of temporary summer youth placements began showing up in EDD statistics.

Of the unemployed claiming basic compensation during July 23,396 were claiming on the 26 week program. Another 5,101 received checks under the first 13 week extension while 2,717 claimed under provisions of the second extension.

Some 2,555 claimants were ex-military personnel.

DMV to Revoke Registration for Unpaid Tickets

People with unpaid parking violations will have until January 1, 1978 to pay or face the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

The DMV will not accept re-registration on those motorists with unpaid parking violations.

Motor Vehicles Deputy Director Doris Alexis said traffic courts will notify the department of those motorists who have failed to pay parking tickets.

"The information will then be placed in DMV's computer," said Alexis. "When it is time for renewal, the usual notification will be mailed to the vehicle's registered owner along with information on any unpaid offense relating to the vehicle."

The renewal notice will contain normal registration fees due plus the amount necessary to pay all outstanding violations against the vehicle. A fee of two dollars will also be assessed to cover the cost of handling the tickets by the department.

It is estimated more than 1.2 million parking violations go unpaid each year. The collection of these fees by the DMV is expected to increase revenue to the state by some $15 million a year.

Program Costs Up $439 Million

Hospital Care Is Costly Item On Medi-Cal Shopping List

California's Medi-Cal program cost more than $2.6 billion in the 12-month period ending June 30, up by more than $439 million from the same period in '75-'76.

Bruce Yarwood, State Health Department deputy director for Medi-Cal, reported accumulative Medi-Cal claims payments during the most recent 12-month period for which preliminary totals are available were $2,657,926,200, up by $439,921,500 from the previous year's $2,218,004,700.

While expenditures were about $2 million higher than budgeted, they were less than 1 percent off the budget estimate of $2,655,749,400.

Breakdown of Costs

Major components of the Medi-Cal program showed substantial increases, said Yarwood, in the period July 1, 1976 to June 30, 1977.

Community hospital inpatient payments totalled $581 million, up from $455 million for the previous year.

Skilled nursing facilities payments were $404 million, up from $348 million in the prior year.

Payments for physicians' services came to $390 million, up from a year ago's $317 million.

County hospital inpatient expenses totalled $247 million, up from $195 million.

Drug claim benefits for Medi-Cal amounted to $143 million, up from $129 million.

Trends

A detailed analysis of cost data for the full year through June is not yet available, explained Yarwood, because of the time lag between the rendering of Medi-Cal services, billing and payment of claims to Medi-Cal service providers.

However, on the basis of detailed Medi-Cal payments data accurate through May, 1977, Yardwood reported these statistical indicators reflecting current trends in Medi-Cal usage, service and cost:

• Institutional costs for hospitals, skilled nursing facilities and intermediate care facilities account for 66 percent of all Medi-Cal spending, (about $156 million in May, 1977.)

• Hospital costs, both inpatient and outpatient, on an average are up over 20 percent from a year ago.

• Total physicians costs are up 24.7 percent from a year prior.

• The total Medi-Cal population is now 2,959,470, up 9.7 percent from a year ago.

• For the 12 months ending in May, there was a monthly average of 2,472,704 persons eligible for Medi-Cal, with 1,304,533 monthly users for a user percentage of 54.6 among those eligible.

• Of the May, 1977, $237.6 million total Medi-Cal expenditures, 66 percent or $156 million went to institutions, 22.8 percent of $54 million to doctors and for other medical services, 11.2 percent or $26.6 million for non-institutional services, including 5.8 percent or $13.6 million for prescription drugs, 3.7 percent or $8.8 million for dental services and 1.7 percent or $4.1 million for other services.

• Of the May, 1977 Medi-Cal spending of $156 million for institutions, 42.9 percent or $102 million, went for hospital inpatient care, 15.7 percent or $37.2 million was spent for skilled nursing care facilities, 6.5 percent or $15.5 million hospital outpatient care, and less than 1 percent or $2 million for intermediate care facilities.

• In May, 1977, Medi-Cal paid $32.7 million in claims for physicians' services, an increase of $6.5 million over the comparison period. Total physicians' services rendered to Medi-Cal recipients during the month was just under 2.5 million, an increase of 321,000.

• Physicians' service cost per recipient treated increased by $5.25 or 13.6 percent in May, 1977, over the year ago comparison period. While increased Medi-Cal eligibles accounted for 31.9 percent of the total cost increase, increased services per recipient accounted for 20 percent of the cost increase and higher cost per service accounted for 37.5 percent of the total cost rise.

• The total number of Medi-Cal providers of service during May 1977, was 75,345. This total includes 53,826 eligible practitioners, 43,189 of whom are physiciens, and 1,624 eligible acute care facilities, 2,592 eligible long-term care institutions and 13,117 eligible medi-Cal vendors.

Bank Dividend Raised

The California First Bank increased the bank's regular quarterly dividend one cent to 19 cents a share for the third quater of 1977.

The increase will bring the payouts for the first 9 months of 1977 to a total of 55 cents a share, up from 37.5 cents for the like period last year.

There are 5½ million shares of common stock outstanding.

Sharp Rise Logged in Thefts of Pick-Ups

The statistics are in on the rise in thefts of four wheel drive pickups. Thefts of these vehicles are up 24.3 per cent.

According to California Highway Patrol Commissioner Glenn Craig most popular among truck thieves were 1965 vintage and earlier Chevrolet and Ford pickups.

Craig said about one in six stolen pickups were 1965 or earlier make.

Some 7,356 pickup trucks have been stolen during the first half of this year compared to 5,917 during the same period of 1976.

The increase in pickup truck theft activity was reported from all CHP divisions throughout the state but the highest rise was a 51.9 per cent rate logged from the San Bernardino division.

San Bernardino had 445 trucks stolen during the first six months of this year as compared to 152 stolen during the same period last year.

Even though the thefts were high, the chances of getting the vehicle back are good.

Craig said there currently stands an 88.7 per cent recovery rate for stolen pickups but this rate included vehicles which were wrecked or stripped of parts.

Lowest recovery rates were for 1974, 1975, 1976 Fords. Those trucks are returned to the owners only 71.7 per cent of the time.

Late Fee Cut To 20 Percent

The Department of Motor Vehicles has reduced the penalty rate for late vehicle registrations to 20 per cent. Formerly the penalty had been 50 per cent.

Registration renewal fees include a flat $11 registration fee plus a vehicle license fee based on the vehicle value.

Vehicles registered with commercial plates are also charged a weight feet based on the unladen weight of the vehicle.

The 20 per cent penalty applies to the total amount, rounded to the nearest dollar.

The penalty for late registration of vessels and off-highway vehicles remains at 50 per cent.

"The objective of a penalty is to seek timely renewal and should be only as stringent as needed to obtain compliance," Alexis said. "The 50 per cent penalty seemed excessive. No other tax carries as heavy a penalty for late payment."

Under the department's year-round registration schedule, renewal deadlines occur on a staggered basis within each month. Renewal notices are mailed approximately 30 days before a vehicle's registration expires.

To avoid penalties, all renewal fees must be paid in full on or before the expiration date.

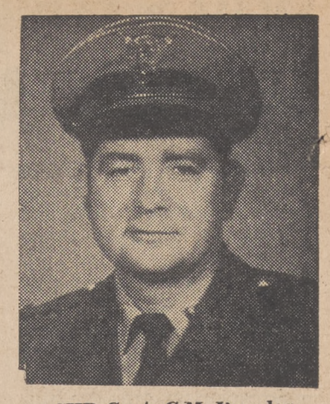
The Zoo's gates will close at 5 p.m. every day and the Animal Park's gates close at 5 Sundays through Thursdays and at 9 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays.

The autumn schedule will remain in effect through October.

Ask Your C.H.P.



CHP Capt. C.M. Douglas

Last week's question was concerned with what happens to speeders. Captain Douglas told an inquirer bail must be posted with the court. A 65 mph speeding citation will cost $20 for bail. The citation can normally be handled through the mail.

If you have a question, no matter how insignificant it may appear to you, ask it. It may save a citation — or even your life.

Write in care of this newspaper. You don't have to sign the letter and please allow at least three weeks for the reply to appear.

This Week's Question:

Last month I moved to a new address, but I don't want to stand in those long lines at DMV. How much time do I have to change my address with DMV?

This Week's Answer:

If you possess a valid California driver license, you have 10 days to notify DMV of the change. You may take care of this through the mail by obtaining a Change of Address from any DMV or CHP office and then mail it to DMV. You must also write the new address on the reserve side of your driver license after crossing out the old address. Also sign and date the new address.

The registration card on the vehicle may simply be changed by marking out the former address and write or type the new address in ink just below the old address. This must also be done within 10 days either by mail or telephone.

Truck Speeder Citations Mount

Truck speed citations issued by the California Highway Patrol were 58 percent higher in July than in the same month a year ago.

4,486 citations were issued in July this year compared to 2,844 last year.

The increase results from CHP emphasis against truck speed and tailgating violations started in July according to Capt C. M. Douglas, East County Commander CHP.

Douglas said nearly 30 percent of the speed citations were issued in the Patrol's Central Division, which includes central valley counties from Stanislaus to Kern. I-5 and 99, heavy truck routes, traverse these counties.

The emphasis program "will continue until such time as the problem is controlled," Douglas said.

Booklet Gives Ideas On How to Land Jobs

If you've just gotten out of the service and you're looking for a job, you should know what you're entitled to.

A free pamphlet from the Department of Labor will tell you about your rights, your benefits, and where you can go for assistance. You can get a copy of Out of the Service and Looking for a Job? by sending a postcard to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 677E, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Veterans may be entitled to unemployment compensation if they can not find a job immediately.

Sometimes, they may have the right to return to their old jobs.

If you need more training to qualify for a new career, your local Veterans Assistance Center or your State employment service may be able to help you get on-the-job training or vocational or academic schooling.

Many of the men and women who work in Veterans Assistance Centers (USVAC) are veterans themselves, and they can give invaluable assistance.

Remember to bring your Armed Forces separation form DD214 and social security card when you visit a USVAC.

Jim Bailey Stars In G'mont Opener

Singer-illusionist Jim Bailey will be presented in an Inaugural Week performance at Grossmont Community College District's Performing Arts Center at 8 p.m., Friday, September 16 in a "Tribute to Judy Garland."

In record-breaking performances from London's Palladium to New York's Carnegie Hall, to the Sahara in Las Vegas, Bailey's persuasive characterizations are making him one of show business' finest rising young stars.

Because of the painstaking preparation involved in each characterization, Bailey re-creates only one performer during each single appearance, always allowing equal time for him to perform as "Jim Bailey." When Bailey first played Las Vegas introducing his "illusion" at the Flamingo five years ago, his one-week engagement stretched into four months.

A change from the LC Zone to the PRD(2) (Planned Residential Development) Zone for the remaining 175.1 acres is requested. The Board may consider more restrictive zones.

The Special Use Permit (P77-77) is for a Planned Residential Development (PRD) with 111 dwelling units and related recreational facilities. Reductions in PRD requirements to permit the location of two residential units 10 feet from an exterior boundary instead of the required 25 feet, 9% relatively level open space instead of the required 20%, and 5 feet of relatively level open space surrounding buildings instead of the required 10 feet, is also requested.

ENVIRONMENTAL STATUS: An Environmental Impact Report is on file.

Further information is available in Room 306 of said Administration Center, or the Department of Land Use and Environmental Regulation, 9150 Chesapeake Drive, Harry Trax, 565-5397 or Steve McGill, 565-5499.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL JAMBOREE

BACK TO SCHOOL — A group of students head toward the front gate of Lemon Grove Junior High as the annual pilgrimage back to school begins.

Area Schools Begin Monday

Nearly all of the area elementary and high schools currently in the process of registering students will begin Monday the 1977-78 school year.

Not many new programs have been started at area schools, many of which are plagued with lack of funds and overcrowded classrooms.

Lemon Grove Elementary Schools

All schools in the Lemon Grove School District will be in session Monday.

The bus schedule will remain as last year but threatens to be confusing for the first few days.

According to District Superintendent Robert Sutton, the first week will unofficially be set aside to get things rolling again.

Monterey Heights School has a new principal, Frank Patrick, as well as a new Early Childhood Education program. Monterey Heights is the fifth school in the district to receive this program. As funds become available the ECE program is scheduled for San Altos.

The enrollment for the Lemon Grove School district will be 3,500 students.

Mt. Miguel High School

Topping the list of activities at Mount Miguel this week is registration currently underway.

School at Miguel begins also on Monday with a PTCA Executive Board meeting scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in conference room A and a water polo match against Sweetwater High School in National City at 3 p.m.

Tonight, the sixth annual Animo Supper will be held in the Mount Miguel Quad from 5 to 8 p.m. The supper is the kickoff to the Matador football season which begins September 16 with a game against Grossmont High School at Helix at 8 p.m.

The Mount Miguel band will march in Saturday's Football Carnival at SDSU's Aztec Stadium as well as do a pregame show for the San Diego Charger game on Sunday.

Also new for Mount Miguel is a Saturday school to accommodate students who would previously have been suspended for school rule infractions. The Saturday school will run from 8 a.m. to noon.

Monte Vista High School

Darrel Gould, formerly of El Cajon High, was taken over as vice president in charge of Monte Vista ASB, a group he describes as having "real leadership".

The Monte Vista ASB, a student organization, has managed to collect more than $1,500 to purchase a new marquee for Monte Vista. The students of ASB will donate the new sign to their high school.

School begins also at Monte Vista High on Monday.

Bob Cordry, a Monte Vista counselor said this year's incoming freshman class has more gifted students than any year in the high school's history.

"We are looking for a very good year," said Cordry.

Spring Valley Schools

Seventh graders at Spring Valley Junior High School will go through an orientation from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The Junior High School is located at 3900 Conrad drive and the phone number is 469-0141.

Students at La Presa Junior High are not required to attend an orientation session since La Presa is a year round school.

Registration for school is almost complete but students may still register. To determine which school these students must attend call the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District office at 469-6171, extension 33 or 34.

Helix High

Grossmont Superintendent Dr. Leland B. Newcomer has predicted Helix would be on double session in two years.

School for Helix High students also begins on Monday.

Grossmont High

Registration is winding down at the largest high school in the Grossmont Union High School district, Grossmont High with more than 2,600 students.

Classes for Grossmont High also begin Monday.

Topping the list of activities planned for the back to school week at Grossmont High is a football game at Helix with Mount Miguel High School September 16 at 8 p.m.

Bus Safety Week Designated Today

Lemon Grove Bus Supervisor Art Brown will receive a plaque this morning from Supervisor Lucille Moore designating the week of September 11 through 17 as Public Awareness to Bus Safety Week.

The San Diego County Chapter of the California Association of School Transportation Officials have asked the County Board of Supervisors to designate the week for school bus safety and to alert motorists of children walking to and from schools.

"The chief purpose is to make the public aware that buses are again rolling and children will be out," Brown added.

Several shopping centers, including College Grove, plan displays and special presentations on bus safety during the week.

"The idea is to impress the general public the safety features of our buses, the good training of our drivers, and how much we depend upon people for bus safety."

Zimmerly on List

Riverside — Deanna Zimmerly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Zimmerly, of Lemon Grove, has been named to the dean's list for the spring semester at California Baptist College.

NEW PRINCIPAL — Dr. Lois Nossaman took over as principal of Mount Miguel High July 1.

Dr. Nossaman was formerly the assistant personnel director for the Grossmont Union High School District.

Class on Money Mgt.

A one day course in understanding and managing money will be offered in San Diego on September 24 by the University of Southern California.

The class will be held in the Sheraton Harbor Island from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The class on money management costs $125 with spouse getting in for $25.

Registration is through the USC College of Continuing Education, University Park, CES, Los Angeles, 90007.

Ballet Highlights Week At G'mont College

A full schedule of classes has opened at Grossmont College as it swings into its second week.

It is not classes but activities which highlight the next few weeks.

On Monday, Ballet West, from Salt Lake City, Utah, will be presented in the Grossmont Community College District's East County Performing Arts Center.

The show begins at 8 p.m.

On Thursday, the Grossmont College Concert Choir, College Community Orchestra and Concert Band will be featured in an 8 p.m. concert in the new East County Performing Arts Center.

Construction Begins in March

Miguel Swimming Pool To be Built Next Year

The new principal at Mount Miguel High School predicts construction to begin by next March on an aquatics center for Mount Miguel High.

Dr. Lois Nosserman, the new principal drafted from her former position as assistant personnel director of the Grossmont Union High School District, predicted construction to begin March 1 on the $300,000 Community Aquatics Center.

August 1, the Grossmont Board of Trustees voted to hire pool architect Victor Wulff. Wulff is currently drawing up plans which will be finalized by December.

"They won't dig the hole until March," said Dr. Nosserman, "but we are in the period of action. All the background has been done and I am very excited I am a part of the final stages of the project."

The pool, according to Dr. Nosserman, will not only accommodate swimming competition but will be designed to allow handicapped swimming.

"It will be a complete center for all," Nosserman reiterated.

A Grape A Day

It's not apples but grapes Canadian researchers are now claiming will keep the doctor away. Grapes contain tannic acid and phenols said to be germ killing agents.
